Dear Trinity College Community,

Campus Safety is working with Hartford Police Department (HPD) regarding an incident that occurred at approximately 4:45 a.m. this morning. An unknown male shot another unknown male near 207 New Britain Avenue. The victim is in critical condition. The suspect fled the area on foot and was last seen heading away from campus in a southerly direction. Campus Safety is working with HPD on possible security camera footage of the area. A section of New Britain Avenue near the entrance to Crescent Street remains closed at this time. No one from the Trinity College community was involved in the incident.

As a reminder, Campus Safety is available 24/7 for those who may require assistance or support. Please call 860-297-2222. If you are a witness to a crime or see something suspicious, please call the Hartford Police Department at 860-757-4000 or call 911 in an emergency.

Sincerely,
Rob Lukaskiewicz

Dean of Community Life and Standards
Interim Director of Campus Safety
